FROM THE DESK OF THE PRESIDENT

Dear IADVLites

Time has come to bid adieu! I will be completing one year term as President of IADVL. I sincerely thank each one of you for co-operating with my entire team and giving me valuable suggestions during my tenure. All of you agree that one year term is a short period to implement or achieve anything. However with each passing year, IADVL is growing from strength to strength, thanks to the visionary ideas of my predecessors.

I have tried to give fillip to certain schemes, which I am sure will see the light of the day in the near future. Health Insurance scheme for all the members, bringing in online voting system to improve the participation of the members, community dermatology and a few others. I have tried to sincerely bring about some changes in IADVL. To strive to improve is the inherent quality of any organisation. I have done just that.

In the course of discharging of my duties, If I have caused any mistakes, I seek your pardon. I lay down my office with a promise that I shall continue to work for IADVL as long as I can.

Long live IADVL!

Regards

Dr.S.Sacchidanand
President, IADVL
2008

MESSAGE FROM PRESIDENT ELECT

Dear IADVL members,

It gives me great happiness to learn that December, 2008 issue of IADVL News is ready for release. IADVL news continues to be lifeline of IADVL activities and provides latest update on what is happening on the organizational front.

I shall first like to pay my homage to all countrymen affected by unfortunate happenings in Mumbai and pray that it does not happen again. I also appeal to all members to be aware of nefarious activities of terrorists and report any suspicious activities to security forces. The freedom has not only to be earned but also retained by hard work and constant vigil.

There has been worldwide economic slowdown and IADVL is also likely to be affected by recession and economic slow down. We should be ready with our strategy of raising finances for future. It is proposed that we may provide all pharmaceuticals opportunity and competitive bidding in various activities like website, journal, orations etc. It shall create transparency and generate more funds.

Life is full of ups and downs and new-year is round the corner, Let us cheer up.

I wish all members a happy new year and look forward to meet you all at Dermacon 2009 at Bangaluru, the Mecca of dermatology.

Long live IADVL!

Dr. Vinod K. Sharma
President Elect

THE SECRETARY SPEAKS

Dear member,

Please accept our greetings from IADVL National Secretariat.

As you know, IADVL secretariat is rapidly transforming electronically to stay active as much as possible throughout the day. This became possible because of the help, support and co-operation rendered by all of you we are planning more and more activities with each passing day.

You will find a brief overview of activities in my official report printed in this issue.

It really was a pleasure to work with a supportive, dedicated, tireless and experienced President like Dr. S. Sacchidanand. I am sure that we will be able to achieve the same level of confidence with the same end result under the leadership of the vibrant and dynamic President Dr. V. K. Sharma.

I have been able to do some positive work for the association just because of the wonderful contributions from the National Executives and the state Executives who are really contributing a lot in shaping IADVL into its current shape.

Respected seniors and past President, Secretaries and Treasurers have been source of inspiration for me.

I on behalf of the Association and the organizers welcome you all to DERMACON 2009. Kindly make it convenient to attend this 37th National Conference of IADVL between 7th and 10th of January 2009 at Bangalore. I am confident that the scientific and the organizing committee will leave no corner untouched to make this conference a memorable one.

On behalf of the National Executives of IADVL, I wish all of you all a very happy, cheerful, harmonious, prosperous and productive 2008.

Looking forward to meet you at Bangalore.

Long Live IADVL!

Dr. Rajeev Sharma (LM/UP/2251)
Honorary General Secretary
IADVL, National Executive 2008

NOTES FROM THE TREASURER'S DESK

At the outset, I feel the global economic crisis has affected our association too. This does not mean, we're going to retreat from our financial responsibilities, but certainly the magnitude of the expenditure in various heads needs to be lessened, wittfully. Only then, we shall be able to fulfill our justified demands, to retain the grandeur of the so renowned association i.e., IADVL.

During the CC-Midterm meet held in Agra on 9th & 10th August, we'd discussed quite good proposals, which guided us more better ways of handling the finances. Those proposals will require approval by the Central Council and the General Body.

Our stress still remains on spending money in the academic front, to enrich all those who are attached to our fraternity. I'm pretty hopeful we will arrive at a fruitful financial consensus during the Dermacon-2009, at Bangalore.

I've always been thankful to my financial teacher-Dr. Arjit Coondoo, Chairperson –Finance Committee, for his precious guidance and also to the entire National Executive for necessary co-operation as & when required.

Long live IADVL

Dr. ROOPAK SAXENA (LM/UP/2288)

Honorary Treasurer,
IADVL- National Executive

MESSAGE OF THE IMMEDIATE PAST PRESIDENT

At the outset, I would like to congratulate Dr. Hemangi Jerajani for winning the election of president elect in a multi-cornered contest. Dr. Jerajani's opponents, who also received substantial number of votes, have done a commendable job. They have taken keen interest in the elections and the result has been a successful and healthy challenge.

The Central Counsel Meeting went well and has important decisions to announce. The Scientific Committee Meeting 2008-2009, organized by The Natural Conference and President Dr. Sachhidanand was smooth and efficient, with a flavor of entertainment and hospitality.

On the International front International League of Dermatological Societies (ILDS) President, Professor J.H. Saurat has pleasant news for all its Board of Directors and its members, which include our IADVL. The World Health Organization has given the ILDS the responsibility to undertake the revision of the dermatological section of the ICD-10 International Classification of Diseases. It will be upgraded to ICD-11 over the next 12-18 months. ILDS is honored to be offered this very prestigious task. Prof. Saurat also states that the coding of skin diseases will be critical to our specialty. It ensures that all diseases dermatologists encounter are included, and it extends to a large number of agencies that use this coding system.

Governments use ICD coding system to assess the extent of diseases within their countries. They also use the system for determining payment for treatment of diseases in many countries, as do many medical insurance organizations. Virtually all research and data collection/epidemiology systems rely on the ICD coding in classifying the diseases that are studied.

Professor Eun, Chairman of World Congress of Dermatology 2011 will publish a book on dermatology. This book will be released at the time of the World Congress of Dermatology 2011 meeting. He has requested that I take the post of associate editor for this book. I would like to state that anyone who is interested in contributing to the matter of this book in the form of original articles please provide me with email addresses as soon as possible.

On the Indian front, we will enthusiastically take keen interest in the workings of ILDS and World Congress.

Dr. Chetan Oberai (LM/M/0677)

Immediate Past President

Indian Association of Dermatologists, Venereologists & Leprologists

REPORTS

HONORARY GENERAL SECRETARY'S REPORT 2008

Dear colleagues,

With your love, support and good wishes I have been able to complete the full gestation period of my tenure as the Honorary General Secretary of this great Association. Each day during these 9 months was different from the other. Though I assumed office during the 36th National conference (DERMACON 2008) at Chandigarh I started functioning fully from April 2008. After the wonderful tenure of my predecessor Dr. Koushik Lahiri it was not an easy task to step into his shoes.

I was very lucky to have some wonderful seniors like Dr. Koushik Lahiri, Dr. Sacchidanand and Dr. Suresh Joshipura as my guides in time of distress and confusion. I owe them a lot. As the President (2008) Dr. S. Sacchidanand was there with me with his futuristic thought of taking IADVL ahead with his charisma and vision. He is an IADVLite determined to take India to greater heights at the international arena. Without his timely advice and caring attitude it would not have been possible for me to function freely. Immediate Past President Dr. Chetan Oberai with his unique ideas, dynamic zeal and overflowing enthusiasm spurred me on like a teenager. It was a different experience working with him. President elect (2008) Dr. V. K. Sharma with his elder brother like attitude and clear cut thoughts about how IADVL should function was instrumental in bringing to life all my efforts for taking IADVL ahead.

The Honorary Treasurer Dr. Roopak Saxena worked hard maintaining the accounts and also maintaining the budget. He was most of the times my sounding board as well as the calmer in situations of confrontation on issues related to IADVL I really don't know how to thank the invisible guide of mine for all that he has done unknowingly for my benefit and IADVL at large.

The current year seems to be year of changes, an year of many changes in and for IADVL

As one of the largest dermatological societies in the world, IADVL is now making its presence felt at the international level.

For the record, I will enumerate a few of our important accomplishments during the last 9 months

I have been able to make my office environment friendly i.e. paperless office all our communication are by emails and we hope by the end of my tenure as Honorary General Secretary IADVL office will be a fully paperless office for this we need support of all IADVL members. All members must have a functional email ID and it should be correctly communicated to the IADVL National Headquarters. I would specially like to request the members of various committees as well as the Heads of Dermatology and Venereology Departments' providing fellowship or training to IADVL members, to send their email ID to me. It saves a lot of time and paper in communication.

Membership drive continues we have been able to register a total of 638 members (295 LMs and 343 PLMs) we have been trying our best to send the details about their membership on the same day but due to fault in email ID many mails have bounced back. I request the state branch executives to confirm the email ID and if possible take the address, email ID and phone numbers in a printed format with the membership application form to avoid wrong entries in the database. We have also initiated the procedure of making member after receiving the Scanned from the state branch secretaries. Kerala Branch of IADVL has taken a lead in this direction and we are glad that someone has started the procedure. I would like to request all to become life members and avoid becoming ordinary members as it involves a lot of procedural work at all steps; individual who applies, State branch and the National secretariat. I have to thank the state branch office bearers for the prompt and critical response to my suggestions from time to time. We have been able to modify the membership application form because of such suggestion. but I feel there is a lot to be done at this front. We should plan to have electronic membership registration / application facility.

Many mails have come back (IADVL News, Election circular) with wrong mailing addresses with support of the state branch we have been able to get the correct addresses for most of them. Many members have been obliging me by updating their addresses on our website www.iadvl.org. This has helped as a lot in my office. Though there are many requests for change of address by surface mail and we are updating those addresses also. I would still request all to use the website www.iadvl.org to update their addresses or else provide an email with the address. Update request sent by SMS is not a good option. Please avoid it.

The maximum requests by email were requesting the publisher was not updating the list as per the details provided by the Chief Editor. I have been able to get access to the IJDVL website and its mailing list for the Honorary General Secretary of IADVL (which exists for the last 1 year or so) during the National Conference of Indian Society of Pediatric Dermatology at Kolkata in November 2008. An updated list containing the addresses of all members registered with IADVL in its database (LMs, OMs, PLMs and AMs) upto 15th Dec 2008 has been sent to the publisher of IJDVL (MEDKNOW). I hope all the members including me will be getting the journal (IJDVL) from the next issue.

IADVL's E groups: are functioning well, though within a small group of members. I would like to see more members interacting on these groups. Academic interactions have begun after stimulus from Dr. Koushik Lahiri and the steam is gradually building up. I am sure with the co operation of all members interested in discussing IADVL as well as their patients these will be larger forum with treasures of knowledge and the discussions will be treasure to preserve with implications in a dermatologist's day clinical practice. To join these groups log on to www.iadvl.org and join the yahoo groups.

Midterm IADVL Business meetings -

EC MIDERMAMEET 2008 at Bangalore was organized extremely well during April 2008. Many decisions were made to take IADVL ahead. (Details Published in IADVL News Vol 4 / Issue 2)

CC MIDERMAMEET 2008 held at Agra on 10th August 2008 was not only well attended but also resulted in creation of firm, transparent and effective guidelines for working of and within IADVL. The details of this meeting are being printed in this issue of IADVL NEWS

A New membership card has been created with pre-printed photograph of the members and has been issued to all the newly enrolled life members.

IADVL Textbook has finally released after a lot of problem with the authors as well as the printer. IADVL must not only feel proud to have members like Dr. R.G.Valia and Dr. Ameet Valia, but also thank them for their Herculean effort.

IADVL Treatment Guidelines on Vitiligo is ready and has been published by IADVL along with the Guidelines for Psoriasis and SJS & TEN Management.

The taskforce for framing guidelines on Dermato-surgery has done a great job under the stewardship of Dr. Mysore Venkatram. Dr. S. Sacchidanand and Dr. Mysore Venkatram conceived this dream project. They have succeeded in compiling the full set and now after a thorough peer review these guidelines have been published as a supplement in IJDVL August- September 2008 issue.

IADVL-Committee for Development of digital teaching and public awareness material has done a wonderful job under the leadership of Dr. R. G. Torsekar. We are sure and hope all IADVL Life and Ordinary members will receive copies of this digital series with the IJDVL shortly once they reach their home.

Scholarships and Fellowships: We have been successful in rolling out several scholarships and fellowships for our younger colleagues.

IADVL Training fellowship is continuing. We have added some more centers. At present training fellowship is being offered by 13 centers across the country. I am sorry to say that only 3 candidates selected for the fellowships have completed the training till 15th December 2008. It is time those who are not interested should surrender the fellowship so that it can be given to those who are really interested.

IADVL Thesis evaluation award has created tremendous enthusiasm among the young members of IADVL. This year also we are continuing with this award. From last year the award is being given as Dr. B.V. Satyanarayana Memorial Award

IADVL-GSK National Quiz for the postgraduate (IGNQPP) touched achieved a high this year. It was organized in many cities across India. I thank the National Coordinators Dr. Chitra Nayak and Dr. Ramesh Bhat, all the quiz masters and coordinators, all the state Presidents and Secretaries, Organising secretaries of CUTICONS and DERMAZONES and of course the participants for making it a grand success. The support from GSK Team is also worth mentioning.

We have renewed our membership by paying the annual subscription to the International League of Dermatological Societies (ILDS).

Recently we have received a letter from International Society of Dermatology (ISD) offering the status of Sister Society in the International Congress of Dermatology (ICD) to be held at Prague in 2009 where we will be holding a separate scientific session.

IADVL is very likely to have better liaison with Asian Dermatological Congress as our President Dr. S. Sacchidanand has appointed Dr. Suresh Joshipura as the liaison officer.

We have been observing Vitiligo day, HIV Day, Leprosy Day, IADVL Day all over the country to increase public awareness about skin diseases by mass campaign. Observing different days are steps in that direction.

IADVL observes "Vitiligo day" every year on 19th May. I am very happy to say that as a result of the active participation of many state branches of IADVL through organizing media campaign, lectures, meet the public, free medical camps etc. IADVL will continue to try to erase the stigma and unscientific propaganda attached with this disease. This has also be undertaken by individuals as well.

IADVL continues to observe Leprosy day on 30th January and HIV and AIDS day on 1st December to establish the composite nature of our discipline and sensitize common people and different Government/non government agencies about the paramount importance of our subjects.

Many state branches are regularly observing these days very sincerely, we are really thankful to them.

IADVL day is observed every year during DERMACON to commemorate that historic day of establishment of our association. Five eminent teachers of Dermatology are being honored during this event.

IADVL Academy is yet to take its shape and the work is unfortunately very slow. It has to take up activities of various committees like IADVL Faculty forum, Task force for the guideline in dermatosurgery, Therapeutic guidelines committee, National quiz committee, IADVL lecture series, Thesis evaluation etc.

We are happy to note the positive developments in various other committees formed by the President of IADVL as advised by the General Body e.g Finance Committee, IADVL-Constitution committee, Awards review committee, Academic committee, Ethics committee, etc. I wholeheartedly express my gratitude to the Chairpersons and members of these committees.

New Awards: From 2009 we are going to introduce two new awards (details printed in IADVL NEWS, Vol. 4, Issue2)

Professor Dr. Ratan Singh Award for meritorious service to the specialty/Association

Prof. (Dr) V.N. Sehgal, Award for accomplishing excellence in Dermatology

On behalf of IADVL I express my sincere gratitude to all of them who have donated these awards.

IJDVL: Dr. Uday Khopkar and his team continue to excel with each issue of IJDVL, our official organ which has further strengthened our position in the international arena. I thank his team for atanding with him throughout during his endeavour

As you all know, Dr D.M. Thappa will be taking over from Dr. Uday Khopkar as the Chief Editor of IJDVL from January 2009. I am confident that he will keep the spirit of the journal alive. We expect him to take the journal to greater heights than his predecessor with his vision and hard work.

IADVL Elections for the year 2008:

The massive election process to elect the IADVL office bearers for the year 2008 was very smooth under the experienced Election officer Dr. V.P. Kuriyipe from Kochi one of our respected Past Presidents. On behalf of the National Executive of IADVL and all its members, I express my gratitude to him.

Like the previous years less than one third of our members took part in the election process by exercising their voting rights. This is a matter of grave concern. I appeal to IADVL think - tank to devise methods like Electronic voting and downloadable ballot paper through Members only area on the IADVL website to increase the number of voters.

IADVL NEWS:

Since the first NEWSLETTER of IADVL was released during 2005. My predecessor Dr. Koushik Lahiri has grossly improved the quality of the IADVL News. It is being printed in colour on glossy art paper and all the issues since Aug 2005 have been uploaded online for future reference. All the information, announcement, reports, meeting notice, agenda, accounts, photographs related to IADVL and its members are included in it.

DERMACONs:

I took charge in DERMACON 2008 in Chandigarh. That will be remembered for the chilling winds, icy cold nights and halls. It may not be remembered as its financial success. We have assembled here in the beautiful city of Bangalore for DERMACON 2009. I hope it will also be an event to remember eternally. This conference is sure to set a benchmark for comparison, as did DERMAVISION BEYOND 2000.

STATE BRANCHES: Needless to mention, the mutual support, cooperation and coordination between the National Secretariat and the state branches is of utmost importance in the successful functioning of association. The meeting of the National Executive with the state Presidents and Secretaries is a fruitful exercise in this direction. I hope this will continue in future as well. I am happy to let you know that during my tenure IADVL Chattisgarh, Pondicherry and J & K state branches have been revived and some are now buzzing with activities. Many state branches are doing exceptional works while a few are lagging behind for various reasons. I request all the state branches to work in a dedicated and united manner and help the national executive to uplift the standards of IADVL.

All of these are motivations so far were enough for me to work relentlessly for the Association. When the world sleeps I try to reach the farthest branches of this vast association as an ordinary worker. I do not know how far I was able to rise up to your expectations, but I can assure you that I have tried my best in the last 9 months and though there have been setbacks to my efforts for various reasons I vouch to continue to work in my own way for the betterment of the members of the association.

My office's staff members, have certainly made my job easier over the last three months after I could train them to work in my preferred way..

Mr. Deepak Jain, and his associates of Times Computers have worked devotedly and tirelessly to bring out each issues of IADVL NEWS on time.

I am heavily indebted towards my family for bearing with me and allowing me to disappear from home for academic as well as association related reasons. I hope to get some more time in future for them.

On behalf of the National Executive I welcome one and all to the 37th National Conference of IADVL (DERMACON 2008) at Bangalore between 7th and 10th of January 2009.

We will have various business meetings during the conference in addition to the multifarious academic meetings. These speak volumes about the healthy growth that IADVL is enjoying these days.

On behalf of the Association and the National Executive for the year 2008, I wish all the members a very cheerful, pleasant, healthy, peaceful and prosperous year ahead.

Long live IADVL!

Dr. Rajeev Sharma (LM/UP/2251)
Honorary General Secretary
IADVL, National Executive 2008

ANDHRA PRADESH

1. Membership drive:

We have succeeded in enrolling 57 new life members this year. The total strength of IADVLAP is now 515.

2. Educational activity among IADVL members:

TRICHOCON AP 2008

We have successfully conducted a CME on hair disorders, "Trichocon AP 2008" on 27th April. It was attended by about 240 dermatologists including the faculty. There were about 225 registrations and the activity was appreciated by one and all. It was for the first time that a CME of this scale and magnitude was conducted under the banner of IADVL in the state of AP.

The activity was held at The Alumni hall, Gandhi Medical College, Hyderabad.

COSMECON AP 2008

A cosmetology/surgical cosmetology workshop and CME was organized on 27th July at Hotel Golconda, Hyderabad. Speakers from various parts of India participated as faculty. About 250 delegates, from all over Andhra Pradesh attended the program.

CUTICON ANDHRA PRADESH 2008

Cuticon AP 2008, the 27th annual state conference was held on 8th and 9th of November at Taramati Baradari, Hyderabad. The 2-day scientific program went on smoothly but about an hour behind schedule. The highlight was the attendance. About 370 delegates participated in the annual meeting. Surprisingly on Sunday afternoon after the Valedictory, there were still about 300 people at lunch. There were 2 orations, 5 plenary sessions comprising of 11 speakers, 2 panel discussions and a quiz, besides the free papers, award papers and poster presentations. Out of the 23 faculty, 10 speakers were from outside the state and the rest were local luminaries from the state of AP. Only 34 papers could be accommodated because of time constraint. 10 books, "Dermatology" by Jean Bologna were awarded to 10 meritorious participants. Dr S Sacchidanand, National IADVL president, released an e-souvenir cum abstract book on the occasion.

A CD of the proceedings of Cuticon AP 2008, including the plenary and other program is being written and will be distributed to all the members of IADVLAP. Preliminary round of the IADVL Glaxo National Quiz was conducted by Dr Abir Saraswat, with Dr V K Somani as the observer.

The general body meeting was held on 8/11/08 at about 6 pm.

It was decided to purchase a flat in Hyderabad to function as a central permanent office of IADVL, AP. Dr A Durgaprasad and Dr AS kumar presented DD of Rs 5.5 lacs, (which they had saved during 2002 state conference) towards this noble cause. A building committee was constituted to look after this important matter. Elections were held for the post of president for the year 2009 and Dr AG Rao from Hyderabad was declared elected.

3. Public education:

AP IADVL carried news items in the vernacular press, highlighting the fact that dermatologists are the only qualified hair specialists or trichologists, by virtue of their curriculum and training during post graduation. News item was mainly about the myths and misconceptions with respect to hair. It was carried by 'The Hindu', and two local newspapers, Hindi Milap (hindi) and Vartha (telugu).

4. Website

A fully functioning website www.iadvlap.org has been constructed for the first time in AP. It is an interactive website, where members can log in and edit their personal profile, to keep current. The national IADVL website has a link to the AP branch. The website has a picture gallery where various events and activities of the IADVL AP branch can be viewed. There is a blog section where members can interact with each other on various issues pertaining to the specialty.

5. World psoriasis day:

On Oct 29th, on the occasion of world psoriasis day, free psoriasis detection and treatment camps were held at 4 places in Hyderabad. Dr D B N Murthy, Dr A Durgaprasad, Dr I S Reddy and Dr V K Somani conducted the camps.

6. Updating member records:

We felt an acute necessity of correct members' addresses when we took over. So we have painstakingly collected the member details from all over the state. We are planning to print a totally current and updated member records directory for the state of AP before 31st Dec 2008.

Note: The brochures for all the three programs, Trichocon AP 2008, Cosmecon AP 2008 and Cuticon AP 2008 are being sent to you as attachments.

IADVL Text book

Dr. R.G walia: book will be and early September delay was due to various reasons as the printer stopped printing after finishing the 1st volume.

Dr. V.K. Sharma - what were reasons for delay?

Dr. Ameet Valia : We started book 3 year back with the idea of meeting international standards. Several authors selected due to their original work failed to write chapters as we had no control over them.

Most authors failed to keep the deadlines despite the fact that they only needed revision. Copyediting was a problem. Due to dispute between copy-editor and publisher.

Since we were combining photographs with text, the page-setting was a bit difficult. Many Photograph (500) had to be replaced. Many members like Dr. Hema Jerajani, Dr. B. Haldar, Dr. D.G. Saple, Departments of Dermatology and Venereology at PGI and AIIMS contributed generously Plagiarism was another problem. Three chapters had this problem. All three authors rewrite the chapters correctly. When checked the other chapters written by the same authors had similar problem. These chapter were already printed. They had to be rewritten by the authors. The printer delayed the project as we could not keep the deadline.

Dr. V. K. Sharma : The name have to be told to the house. Since they have been asked to rewrite the chapters and the rewritten chapters have been accepted.

Dr. Ameet Valia : The names of such authors are Dr. A.J. Kanwar, Dr. C.R. Srinivas and Dr. Rekha Seth.

Dr. Raja Babu said this is unfair to the author as they are not present to defend themselves and we must seek an explanation from them.

Dr. Koushik Lahiri : The text book has been delayed by 1½ year and we are loosing 6-7 lacs Why we cannot mention the names.

Dr. S.Sacchidanand : We must seek their view.

Dr. Gurmohan Singh : This is a clear case of copying for which the editors are witness. To blame the assistants is not correct.

Dr. Koushik Lahiri: They have accepted copying by revising the chapter.

Dr. Saumya Panda: The Editors caught the authors were copying.

The Editors sought explanation.

The authors informed that their co-author did the mistake. The co-author were made without consent the Editor.

Dr. Rajan Grewal : We must place a record the Yeoman service of Dr. R.G. Valia and Ameet Valia for bringing out this wonderful Textbook.

Dr. Sanjeev Gupta (LM/H/3000)

There is proposal regarding how to increase the IADVL membership. State secretary should send a list of medical colleges in their state and how many PG students joined there in a year. it should be responsibility of Concerned HOD to ask them to get membership of IADVL as early as after their joining. However it cannot be strictly enforced as candidate willingness will be in upper hand. If candidate joins fine, but if he/she refuses then his/her form sent later for having benefit of any IADVL scheme should only be accepted after getting due comments of concerned HOD, and remarks of candidate why he/she is submitting form just before the last date of applying for any scheme of IADVL

Secondly, we should convince the candidates that it is worth to join IADVL as early as possible because of many benefits, list of Benefits should be there in all departments.

Thirdly, PGs discounted fee for registration of DERMACONS should be allowed only if they have PLM of IADVL.

education (LET'S TALK) for teenagers 7 years back. This programme has lectures for school children between 10 to 14 years by members of FOGSI (FEDERATION OF OBSTRETICIAN AND GYNAECOLOGISTS OF INDIA).

This is managed by Young Concepts Indian incorporated in metro cities. This programme involves offering education to teenagers in school regarding smoking, teen age pregnancy and health.

Last year similar pilot programme was initiated by Johnson & Johnson for education of school teenagers about skin care, acne dandruff and hair care in Mumbai, Delhi and Kolkatta. Dr Lahiri from Kolkatta and Dr. Parashar from Delhi and Dr. Godse (Mumbai) were involved. IADVL member's help is taken without giving due credit to IADVL.

I feel this programme can be initiated by IADVL in collaboration with Johnson & Johnson. This programme will help to offer health education to school children regarding skincare, hair, acne and I invite local IADVL members to deliver lectures in school with power point presentation. Contents of presentation can be decided by IADVL academic group to avoid bias to any products.

dandruff. In metro cities coordinator can appointed who will invite local IADVL members to deliver lectures in school with power point presentation. Contents of presentation can be decided by IADVL academic group to avoid bias to any products.

This will be great mass activity for Indian children. I request IADVL to consider this project.

Dr. Siddhartha Das (LM/WB/2493)

1. When a state branch organize CUTICON, they do not need to share the profit made during that conference, When a state organize the DERMAZONE then they club their CUTICON along with DERMAZONE. According to the new resolution made by the National IADVL, that the state branch who organise the DERMAZONE will have to share 50% of their profit. By this way the state branch is losing their revenue. So, we want that there should be reconsideration of the sharing proportion.

2. During the Election of the National IADVL Executives, many members do not received the Ballot Paper. So, they cannot cast their votes. There should be a resolution that when a member does not receive their Ballot Paper on a stipulated date, then they can inform the Election Officer. The Election Officer can send a duplicate Ballot Paper through Courier. So, the member can participate in the Election proceeding. This time many Ballot

Papers were sent without mentioning that the envelope contains Ballot Paper. Now onwards it should be written boldly that the envelope contains Ballot Papers.

Dr. Jayadev Betkerur (LM/KT/2009)

- 1- A detailed discussion on Insurance scheme. no members of EC or CC have come out with any suggestions or comments after the presentation @ ECM & CCM. LIC people are eager to hear from us & are pressing me for an answer. No other company has come forward. In present circumstances LIC seems to be a better bet. I seek your cooperation in this.
- 2- There are some deficiencies in the IADVL membership application form. I have designed a new form with few modifications to the existing one. I would like to present the same at the GBM.
The deficiencies in the present form are that:
 1. there is no space for photograph
 - 2 the payment details are usually at the last.
 - 3 there is not enough space for proposer & seconders to write their names and signature
 - 4 applicants instruction are not clear- some people took drafts payable @ Agra.
 - 5 the information to editor can be sent separately as in the new form.
 - 6 the central secretariat address can be brought at last.
- 7 the space for code no is small. These are some things I have noticed and corrected in the new one.
- 3- The national quiz is becoming a long drawn process with the quiz going on till 2nd week of December. I propose that winners of quiz held during CUTICONS be called to DERMACONS and a prelims is held on day one finals on last day. Problems arising in this skeletal can be sorted out by mutual discussion between quiz committee & GSK.

Dr. A. K. Bajaj (LM/UP/2238)

1. Convener IADVL Academy Hon. Gen. Secretary
2. Chairperson Election/ Selection one year in advance IADVL Academy
3. Selection committee- Members of Academy and national executive members by consensus

4. Chairperson guidelines committee One of the members of Academy
5. Orations to be decided by the academy
6. National Quiz to be coordinated by academy
7. Meeting of academy members during the DERMACON / Executive committee meeting
8. Academy members 12 in number (dirty dozen). Six members to retire every 2 years.
9. All 12 should be members of the central scientific committee
10. Organizing sec & scientific chairperson of previous DERMACON need not be members of scientific committee, no need to pick up member of scientific committee from the floor.

Dr. Vinod K. Sharma (LM/ND/1652)

Raising finance for IADVL orations: It has come to my notice that there are two oration by IADVL pharmaceuticals and they have not made any lump sum contribution towards association for the purpose till date but only provide Rs 10,000 per year to awardee. In fact several dermatologists have donated 1 lac but are not getting orations. I propose that pharmaceuticals may be asked to contribute Rs 10 lac each for continuation of orations for next five years.

R. G. Valia (LM/M/832)

"DERMACON should be held on alternate years"

Points in favour of the proposal

- 1) With increasing attendance year by year, it is difficult to find suitable venues for the conference.
- 2) Temporary pandals have poor acoustics, poor projection facilities and poor seating arrangements.
- 3) The pandals have temporary electrical installations, and are constructed of inflammable materials. Any accidental fire, i.e. due to short circuit, will wipe off half the number of dermatologists of the country.
half the number of dermatologists of the country.
- 4) With the approval of zonal conferences, by IADVL in four zones of the country once in two years, we can have each year either a zonal conference or a national conference to attend.
- 5) The office bearers of the centre, will have 2 years time to do some concrete work. One year is too short a period.
- 6) The purpose of a conference is to present scientific work done by the members and to learn latest advances in the speciality. The members will have that opportunity either in the zonal conference or national conference every year. Latest developments can be learned by the clique of a mouse. Teledermatology and teleconferences have come of age.

- 7) The money saved amounting to a few crores of rupees can be used for scientific purposes. A few suggestions:
 - a) Publication of the IJDVL can be made monthly.
 - b) Official treatment, guidelines of different disorders, in the form of booklets, can be distributed to the members free of charge.
 - c) Patient education literature of different topics can be distributed to the members in different Indian languages free of charge.
 - d) IADVL can sponsor epidemiological genetic, clinical, investigational and therapeutic studies in recognized centres of the speciality and subspecialities as decided by newly established Academy of Dermatology.
- 8) Interested members can attend annual conferences of the subspecialities of skin surgery, cosmetic surgery, and cosmetics, paediatric dermatology, skin histopathology, dermatologic lasers, contact dermatitis and many others yet to come.
- 9) Members will not miss their conference outing once a year as they are doing now by attending a zonal conference or a national conference each year.

There will be more posts available to preside at the national conference or four zonal conferences for senior members who want to serve and guide the association.

Dr. V. Gowri (LM/AP/07) and Dr. G. Man Mohan (LM/AP/107)

We wish to submit the following points for discussion in the AGM to be held during Dermacon 2009:

- a. The financial year 07-08, we have drawn 21 lakhs for IADVL activities from the corpus fund. If we continue this trend the corpus fund would disappear in a short span of time. The earlier rule of spending only the interest money has to be re-introduced to spend for the activities of the IADVL.
- b. Central council meeting held every year as MIDERMAMEET, is a very important event in the annual calendar of IADVL. However, the meeting incurs huge expenditure. While the initial meetings were sponsored by pharma companies, expenses of the 2008 MIDERMAMEET meeting had to be borne entirely by IADVL due to lack of sponsorship. We understand the expenses involved were huge, amounting to several lakhs. We are deeply concerned with this situation and feel that if such a situation continues in future, with huge annual withdrawals from corpus amount of IADVL, the financial health of our association will be seriously compromised. In view of this, we would like to suggest the following:

1. Every effort will be made by the executive committee to procure sponsorships for the MIDERMAMEET.
2. Travel and accommodation expenses of all members attending the meeting may be reimbursed from the sponsorship,, either partially or completely, depending on the amount of sponsorship.
3. If sponsorship is not available, then travel and accommodation expenses of members will not be reimbursed by IADVL funds. IADVL funds will be used only for arranging the venue , audiovisual expenses, lunch for attendees and expenses of executive committee members only. All other members attending the meeting(such as former presidents, central council members etc) will bear their expenses/or be sponsored by their state associations .The upper limit for such an expense to be incurred by IADVL will not exceed Rs 3 Lakhs. This amount will be drawn from the interest accrued on IADVL deposits and NOT from the corpus fund. ON no occasion and for no reason what ever, will any money be withdrawn from corpus fund. We request this august body to deliberate on our suggestions and issue appropriate directions.

Dr. Venkataram Mysore (LM/KT/3211)

Dr. Koushik Lahiri (LM/WB/2503)

We wish to submit the following points for deliberations by the AGM in DERMACON 2009 Bengaluru. We request you to kindly include them in the agenda

1.Conference website: Presently website of each dermacon conference is a separate and new website designed by the local organizing committee. This means that each website has a new name, new design, new text and is different from previous conference websites. Each organizing committee has to put on a lot of time and money to design this. We suggest that hereafter, all future conference websites will be designed from the existing IADVL website and will be named as www.iadvl.org/dermacon2009 or 2010 or 2011 etc

The advantages of such a system would be:

- a) uniformity
- b) link to an existing mother website

- c) easier access and easier recognition
- d) less work for org committee- all common sessions and their rules(such as award session, quiz) etc have just to be copied.
- e) Scientific program, speakers, rules for abstract submission etc will be easily available for reference ; this will help to design scientific program properly and to avoid repetitions
- f) All abstracts to be linked to this website and hence can be read any time later also.

We request that such a system be adopted from DERMACON 2010. Similar system may be adopted for state conferences also.

2. Proposal for MID DERMACON: DERMACON has become a huge conference with nearly 4000 delegates making it difficult to organize. Presently it can be organized only by few large cities. This is denying opportunity for smaller 2 tier cities to organize national level meets. In view of this we propose that IADVL organize a summer meeting, which can be termed as MID-DERMACON, in the months of May-July 2009. We also suggest that in stead of organizing this as a new conference, a zonal conference (on rotating basis between each zones) be elevated to the national level and named as MID DERMACON. In other words one zonal conference each year will become MID DERMACON and this would pass on from zone to zone. It will thus be held in each zone once in 4-5 years.

rotating basis between each zones) be elevated to the national level and named as MID DERMACON. In other words one zonal conference each year will become MID DERMACON and this would pass on from zone to zone. It will thus be held in each zone once in 4-5 years.

In addition to giving opportunity for smaller cities to host conference, it would also bring in additional revenue to the IADVL. It would also have another advantage- the Central council meeting can be clubbed with this conference and hence the expenditure currently being incurred on CC meetings (running in to several lakhs as in last year) will be avoided as all central council members would arrive as delegates (as it now happens for DERMACON CC meeting).

We request the august body to consider these points.

Dr. Narasimha Rao P (LM/AP/216)

I am forwarding this letter of Dr Pannikar to your office. As president of IADVL it would be nice if you can send a rejoinder to Messers Banot publications expressing our associations stand supporting Dr Pannikar and asking them to delete those offending paragraphs.

The offending text is on page 390 under the Chapter 8- Demography and Family Planning subsection- Family Planning item b.-foetal health, which states _ "the quality of population can be improved only by avoiding completely unwanted births, compulsory sterilization of all the adults who are suffering from certain diseases such as leprosy and psychosis."

Similarly on page 277 under leprosy Control and item Others it states that "preventing contact with infectious cases and fomites is an accepted methods for controlling the spread for any communicable disease, and leprosy is no exception."

Such statements made at a time when programmes are trying to reduce stigma and discrimination against people suffering from leprosy and mental ill health. I consider this as a gross violation of basic human rights and against human dignity. The way the subject matte has been dealt with displays a total lack of understanding of leprosy and its control. Such statement in reputed textbooks of medicine would have disastrous consequences on management and control of communicable diseases in generally and leprosy control in particular in India.

In the same textbook on page 268 under Chapter 5 Epidemiology of communicable diseases, section V Surface Infections., under the heading Leprosy, item social pathology which states that "Over the centuries, a legend has grown around leprosy that it is highly contagious and that it is incurable. Even today, in spite of scientific information available about leprosy, this legend is deeply rooted in the minds of most people at all levels of society, with the result that social ostracism is apparent everywhere."

Under the same heading on page 277, under Health education, under item General Public it states "the public should be made aware that leprosy is not a hereditary disease; it's a bacterial disease like tuberculosis; it is curable; not all leprosy patients are infectious; regular and adequate treatment is essential to obtain cure and prevent disabilities, and that the patient needs sympathy and social support."

EXPERIENCE OF BRITISH ASSOCIATION OF DERMATOLOGISTS ANNUAL MEETING - LIVERPOOL 2008

After winning the 2nd best paper-the Dr. B.B Gokhale award, at DERMACON Chandigarh 2008, the travel fellowship under IADVL- BAD exchange programme to attend the 88th Annual meeting in Liverpool was like icing on the cake. Being a postgraduate student at Lady Hardinge Medical College, New delhi, this was a golden opportunity to learn from international experts at a beginning stage of my career and I thank IADVL for the same.

The conference was organized in the city of Liverpool in Northern England. The city is a mix of modern as well as ancient heritage. The city is famous for the Beatles as well as the story of the sinking Titanic... The most popular sculptures 'The Lambananas', the fusion of head of a lamb and the tail as a banana, were present all over the city. The stay arranged by the BAD organizers was in the heart of Albert Dock, with the beautiful view of the Meryside river on one end and the convention centre on the other end.

The meeting started with a pre conference trainee session mainly for the registrars and the postgraduates with topics like cosmetic surgery, use of electronic logbook in the dermatosurgical procedures.

The main conference started from 1st July with discussions on various topics by eminent personalities like Prof. Barbara Gilchrist, Prof Julian Verbov, Prof Peter Hammond to name a few...There were various dermatological societies, having their own paper and poster presentations like British Society for Dermatopathology, Pediatric dermatology, Contact Dermatitis etc...

The focus session on 'Important genodermatosis' by Dr.Celai Moss was very educative. In the pediatric dermatology sessions, there were talks on use of PDL in early hemangiomas which lead to early resolution as well as less of side effects. Also use of cyclosporine in atopic children used by doctors in UK can be helpful in our patients especially who are not responding to conventional treatments. There were also discussions regarding hypopigmented Mycosis Fungoides in children.

It was heartening to see the involvement and participation of nurses in attending the lectures along with us, which definitely going to benefit them in patient care.

There was a walk organized by the 'British Skin Foundation' to tour the city of Liverpool on 2nd July. We walked 4miles along with a guide who enriched us with the history of 60 important monuments of Liverpool which ended with an English dinner.

The good hospitality of the organizers can be seen by the various social events they had organized starting with the president's reception at the Meryside maritime museum, the annual dinner hosted at the St. George's hall to name a few..

In the end I would again like to thank IADVL for encouraging the young dermatologists by their various exchange programmes and helping them in seeking more about various new insights in the field of dermatology.
