Dermatalent

Talent beyond dermatology

January 2017

From the editor's desk

Dear Readers

New year greetings!

Welcome to a year full of new beginnings, new journeys and new experiences.

This new year, we bring you the fourth issue of Dermatalent and we hope that it motivates and encourages you to bring forth the talent and creativity that lies within you as well.

Be it art, literature or social activities; our wonderful contributors not only are masters of dermatology but continue to outshine in other arenas as well and this issue is our humble attempt at recognising and encouraging them to pursue and enrich the world with their creativity.

So dear colleagues and fellow dermatologists, hope you enjoy flipping through these art filled pages and push yourself to explore the artist that lies within!

Happy Reading !

I am working as an independent consultant at Phoenix Wellness Centre at Thane, Maharashtra.

Details about my entries

- 1.) The first is a wall mount pen stand made from a cardboard box.
- 2.) Second is a jewellery box made out of an old cardboard box and thermocol to hang my earrings and other jewellery.

Dr. Kavish Chouhan

South Africa is a paradise for adventure and wildlife lovers.

I wanted to feel the adrenaline rush at its peak so I decided to go for sky diving at Mossel bay South Africa.

It's one of a kind experience difficult to explain it in words. It's all about overcoming fears. During the free fall chilly winds slap your cheeks endlessly but the views from above are breathtaking.

We also did cage diving with great white shark, walk with real lions, cuddled with a real cheetah, met African penguins. what more you can ask for. It is also a great place for nature lovers with breathtaking views.

I am an amateur artist who is trying to find the inner peace by these paintings.
My favourite paintings are Ganesha pictures.

Dr. Kuldeep Saxena

Dermatologist and hair transplant surgeon

Dr. Kuldeep Saxena has an enormous bag filled with talents. He has a versatile personality which includes his love for music and poetry. He has been an efficient writer since his college days and still writes. His work in poetry is worth admiration. He has a soothing voice which goes equally well with songs as well as Gazals. He is also one of the founder members of the prestigious Gwalior Musical Society. He is a consummate mouth organist and also plays flute.

कैक्टस

सुख धूप में अपने को तपाते हैं ।
फुटपाथों पर अपनी दुनिया बसाते हैं ॥

अपने बाजुओं के दम से दुनियां को झुकायेगें ।
हम तो कैक्टस हैं कहीं भी उगजायेंगें ॥

गुलिस्तां में हो हक हमारा ऐसी कोई चाह नहीं।
बागवां दे न दे सहारा इसकी कोई परवाह नहीं ॥

नीले आसमां के तले अपना आसियाना बनायेगें ।
हम तो कैक्टस हैं कहीं भी उग जायेंगें ॥

आँधियाँ हिला सकें हमको उनमें वो दम नहीं ।
तन की भूख मिटे न मिटे लेकिन कोई गम नहीं ॥

गुजरेगें जिधर से अपने निशां छोड़ जायेगें ।
हम तो कैक्टस कहीं भी उग जायेंगें ॥

कौन कहता है हममें रौनकें गुलाब नहीं ।
खुशबू नहीं रंग नहीं और वो शबाव नहीं ॥

हम वो हैं जो तूफानों में दीप जलायेगें ।
हम तो कैक्टस हैं कहीं भी उग आयेगें ॥

आज स्वर्ण मंदिर में सोना लगा ।
कल साईं बाबा की ताज पोसी होगी ॥

पुनरूत्थान होगा शिव मंदिर का ।
फिर हनुमान मंदिर में नक्काशी होगी ॥

मंदिरों में कैद भगवान भीं।
स्वर्ण मुकुट तले छटपटाता है ॥

देखकर सिसकते नौनिहालों को।
बेबस सा आंसू बहाता है ॥

ऐ कांश कि तुम समझ पाते।
कि वो तुमसे क्या चहता है ॥

बहुत बन चुके मंदिर शिवालय ।
अब कुछ मानव मंदिर बनाओं ॥

प्रति स्थापित करो बेसहारों को वहां ।
उनके जख्मों पर मरहम लगाओं ॥
